

IN THE COUNTY.

Nelson.

Died at his home in Nelson, Nov. 26, 1909, of heart trouble Alonzo C Staples. He was a member of the firm of Staples & Co. Louis he was called, was an energetic young man of 31 years of age; was a worthy young man of good habits and was liked by all who knew him and in his death the family loses a good son and brother, and the town one of her best business men. The funeral was preached at the Christian church Monday afternoon, by Elder C. J. Shouse and interment at the Staples cemetery.

Miss Lillian Sutton died Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr and Mrs Sutton, on North Garnett street. Burial took place Wednesday at the city cemetery. Miss Sutton was sick but a short time with typhoid fever.

Some of the young men in town gave a ball at the Opera House Friday night. A fair number was in attendance and all enjoyed themselves. Supper consisting of oysters was served at the hotel at 12 p. m.

Messes L. M. Haynie, P. M. Sandridge, Geo. Alexander and Dr. Smith, who have been in the south part of the state hunting the past two weeks, arrived home Monday evening.

Forrest Oscar, T. C. Rainey and Miss Bruce Marshall were among those from Marshall, who attended the funeral of Lon Staples Monday.

Dr. L. I. Shuck is the proud father of a big boy. Mother and boy doing well. The Dr. is receiving congratulations on every side.

John Kennedy, from Marshall, is here this week buying old iron; he wants to get two car loads at this place.

J. W. Allen, of Kansas City, attended the funeral of his cousin Lon Staples, this week.

J. M. Baker and daughter Mrs. Suseline and children departed for Oklahoma Tuesday.

Deputy Sheriff John Fristow, of Marshall, was in the city Monday.

J. M. Verts and wife spent Sunday in the burg with relatives.

BLACKBURN

Saturday being Miss Viola Catron's birthday, her mother honored the occasion by inviting Miss Viola's gentlemen and lady associates to spend the evening. The young folks had a jolly time.

Hirt, the beloved dog of Ross Small, was struck by the locom on Tuesday afternoon, and instantly killed. The hook is a terrible one to Ross and his recovery from it, is exceedingly doubtful.

Misses Carrie Metcalf, Edmondia Field, Mina and Margaret Alexander spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Georgia Fletcher, of Alma.

Mr. Shawl and family, of Grand Pass, worshipped at the M. E. church, South, on Sunday.

Quite a number here have received cards announcing the high noon wedding of Mr. and Mrs. George Fletcher's only daughter, Miss Georgia, to Mr. F. Z. Meeks, of Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Vanarsdale arrived from Ky. Saturday and are visiting Mrs. Vanarsdale's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Davis, Mrs. Joseph Davis, and son Herbert, of Elmwood, attended services at the M. E. church Sunday.

The ladies of the Christian church will give an oyster supper in the vacant room of the R. Small property on Friday.

Mrs. Lydia Blackburn spent Thursday in Higginville, the guest of Miss Bessie Bulkley.

Budd Basheers and wife, of the county, moved into the Ross property this week.

Harry Parsons, of Marshall, was holding court in our city one day last week.

Presiding Elder Hunter preached at the Methodist church Saturday and Sunday.

Fred Luter resigned his position on the cable at K. C. and returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Campbell, of K. C., are the guests of D. M. Pinkerton and family.

Walter Fore and family, of K. C., are the guests of his father S. A. Fore and family.

Joseph Cable and Abe Hoard have gone to Arkansas on another bear hunt.

Mrs. Rine, of Corder, attended quarterly meeting here Saturday and Sunday.

Property belonging to the Clay estate was sold to F. Fahrneyer recently.

Thursday of this week will close the bachelorhood days of W. E. Merry.

Mr. Fletcher Groves, of Corder, visited his brother Dave this week.

Mrs. G. A. Rhehart entertained the XXX Club on Friday afternoon.

Will Price, of Corder, was calling in our city Sunday.

Wednesday is nurseryman Stewart's delivery day.

Squire Neal was in Sweet Springs Sunday.

Mrs. C. M. Pinkerton continues very ill.

Next door to Carpenter's Racket Store.

SALT SPRINGS.

Ernest Elsen is needing a house-keeper. The family who has been living with him has left. Here is an opportunity for some young lady. Samples of biscuits, angel cake, etc., may be sent in any time. There will be a wedding before Christmas.

The Christian Endeavorers of this place will give a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brown on Friday evening, Nov. 17. Refreshments will be served at a small cost. All are cordially invited.

Our representatives before the County Court were successful in securing an order for a new iron bridge south of Salt Springs.

J. A. Orr shipped out two loads of cattle for Chicago Tuesday night. He is over in Howard this week looking for feeders.

Grant Fulkerson returned home on Friday. He was in Oklahoma for a month looking after his business interests.

J. A. Orr sold his lower farm of 120 acres to Joe Ryan of Colorado Springs. The price was $47.50 per acre.

Al Vaster is preparing to erect a large mule barn. J. H. Mitchell is sawing the lumber.

Wm. Rader returned on Monday from Oklahoma, where he has been on a prospecting tour.

Dr. Edmund McLennan of Malta Bend, spent a few hours here Sunday with friends.

Wm. Bauers and family spent Sunday with the family of Dick Hood near Blackburn.

Mesdames Lander and Kapp of Malta Bend, spent Tuesday with Mrs. J. W. Blair.

Messes Bacon and Odell of Marshall, were here Saturday looking for mules.

Mrs. Jas. Blair Jr. and Mrs. J. W. were visiting in Malta Bend Monday.

Massachusetts might as well have made it unanimous last Tuesday.

G. O. Thornton returned from his Benton county trip Saturday.

The corn crop is not turning out as well as farmers expected.

Sherman Houston says if Billy Mason resigns, he will too.

H. D. Ament was visiting our cattle men this week.

A. H. Orr is in Chicago this week with cattle.

MONEY.

I have an abundant supply of home, or individual money, on hand to loan. No red tape nor delay. The title and security offered, are to be approved by me, and when this is done, the money is ready. I WILL BEAT ANY BODY'S TERMS. Try me. Respectfully, J. W. Bryant, Office in "Hotel Hart" block, Marshall, Mo.

S. Geo. Hood and H. L. Alexander of Arrow Rock spent Sunday in Marshall and were dinner guests at Hotel Hart.

New York Store.

ABOUT GLOVES!!

Do you know that we carry the best and largest line of gloves of all kinds for ladies and gentlemen? We do!!

The kid gloves at $1.00 and $1.50 are guaranteed in every particular. We carry full lines in all the fashionable shades.

Ask to see our Silk Lined Gloves for Ladies and Gentlemen.

A big line of LINED GLOVES at 25 c. 50 c. 75 c. up to $2.50

KNIT GLOVES and MITTENS from 10 c a pair upward.

The days will be cold very soon, so prepare yourself.

The Reliable Millener.

Mrs. M. E. Campbell

Is receiving weekly the latest styles in millinery, which is not to be rivalled in beauty or worth.

ALSO has a First Class Dressmaker from the city. Bring her your dresses to be made. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Next door to Carpenter's Racket Store.